

Measuring height and weight

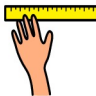

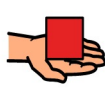

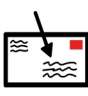

When I go to the hospital or at school

I may have to stand against a wall while the nurse measures my height

I may have to stand or sit on some scales so the nurses can measure my weight.

This will give the nurses important information about me ..

My parent/carers will be pleased if I try

my best to stay still while being measured/weighed.

