

Snow Day

Stories to help

Sometimes

it snows

a lot

in the winter.

Snow

can

make

roads

icy

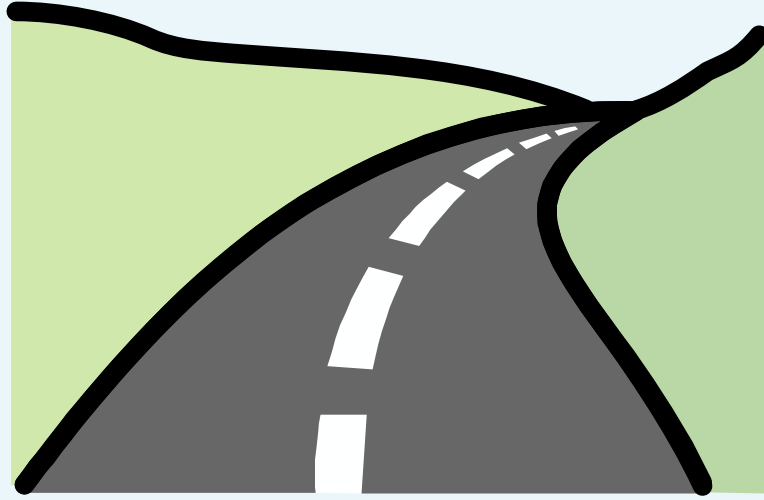

and

hard

to

travel

on.

When

the

roads

are not safe,

my

school

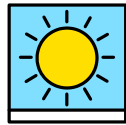

might

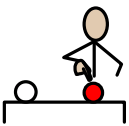

close

for the day.

This

is called

a

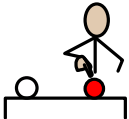

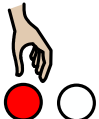

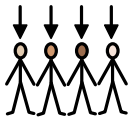

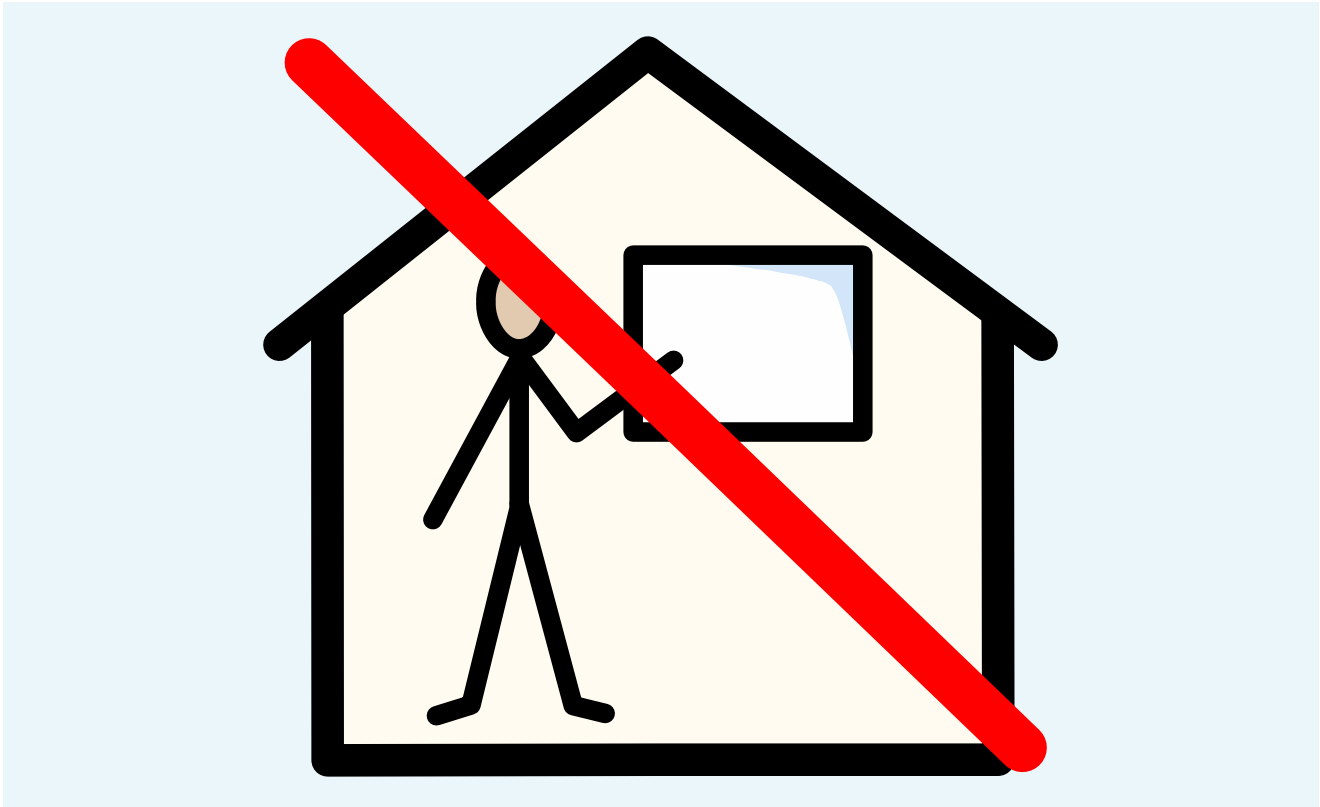

snow day.

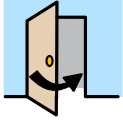

Adults at the school decide if the school should be closed.

They make this decision to keep everyone safe.

 If school is  closed, I  will not go to school  that day.

 This  might  feel  surprising or  different,  and  that is okay.

Even though  my  routine  changes, I  am  safe. A grown up  will  tell  me the   plan for the  day.

reopens,

I

will go back

my

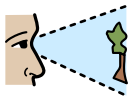

normal

routine.

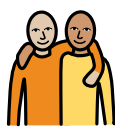

I can

see

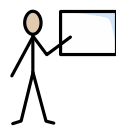

my

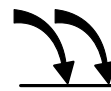

friends

teachers

again.

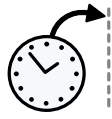

Snow

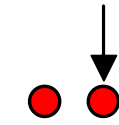

days

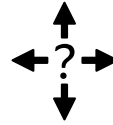

are

just

another

way

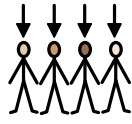

people

help

to keep

everyone

safe.
