Unwind Your Anxious Mind Parent Carer Anxiety and Well-Being Sessions

Parent Carer Anxiety & Wellbeing Sessions - Delivered with the expert team at Northamptonshire Mind because looking after your own mental health is not optional — it's essential

Open to PINS schools & NPCV members

If you're a parent carer of a child or young person with SEND (diagnosed or suspected), anxiety can feel like a constant background noise — the meetings, the waiting, the fighting for support, the uncertainty about the future. You are not alone.

Unwind Your Anxious Mind is a supportive, understanding session created specifically for parent carers, recognising the real and valid causes of anxiety in SEND parenting. Led by the compassionate team at Northamptonshire Mind, we'll gently explore where anxiety comes from, how it shows up in our bodies and thoughts, and — most importantly — how we can manage it in ways that actually fit busy, emotionally stretched lives.

- Understand why parent carers experience heightened anxiety
- Learn practical, evidence-based tools to reduce overwhelm
- Build confidence in managing anxious thoughts and stress responses
- Connect with other parents who truly understand your journey
- Take time for you — without guilt

This session offers space for meaningful discussion, reflection and shared understanding — not judgement, not pressure, just support. 19th March 9.30-11.30 Rushden Mind We can't wait to welcome you & support you! To book please visit Book A Service/Event

Tackling School Attendance, EBSA and Exclusion risks

One of the strongest themes we raised last year was Emotionally Based School Avoidance (EBSA) and neurodivergent attendance challenges. Parent carers helped us highlight that:

- Attendance policies are often not trauma- or neurodiversity-informed
- Anxiety, PDA, sensory overload and unmet needs are drivers — not defiance

- Punitive responses increase exclusion, isolation and mental health harm

Because of parent voice, these concerns are now firmly on the local risk register, influencing policy reviews and inclusion work.

Attendance can't improve without inclusion first. Our upcoming workshop is a strong start to continuing this theme into 2026!

1.00-8.00pm in the Town Centre

The line-up for Well Creative 2026 has been announced, as it returns to Wellingborough Town Centre on Saturday 21st March from 1pm to 8pm. This year the festival will slowly start to illuminate as the sun sets, with captivating street performers, family activities and inventive artists at venues across the town centre, bringing local and national artists to Wellingborough who work in music, craft, performing arts and more.

Well Creative Festival is produced by Made With Many and designed by Canvas, Made With Many's youth forum, to be a fun, free and friendly festival celebrating creativity for residents and families of Wellingborough. The event has been made possible by funding from Arts Council England, thanks to National Lottery players.

Be amazed by incredible, illuminated inflatables as you wander through Wellingborough's streets. Meet Ocho the Octopus — a spectacular gigantic puppet promising instant wow-impact and delight. Ember, the magnificent dragon, will weave across the festival by two skilled puppeteers, who control its twisting body, animated facial features, and swishing tail. Nocturnal, an enchanting series of illuminated woodland animals adorned with intricate mandala patterns that will glow soothingly and come alive as day turns to night.

Visitors can also look forward to whimsical walkabout puppetry and glowing lantern art. Celebrate the importance of nocturnal pollinators with Moths and Moonflowers, where giant illuminated moonflowers attract curious moths. Catch Hare and Moon, where gentle Moon guides adventurous Hare through a playful, interactive story of exploration and discovery. Lollipop Puppet Theatre will invite you to meet Solar Sister and her astronaut companion in a roving performance filled with cosmic facts and feats of puppet agility. Stroll along the main thoroughfare and you may catch these charming characters weaving through. Mike Payton will also be delighting audiences with magical, imaginative Storytelling sessions.

Pause at one of the workshop zones to join in and take home your own glowing creation. Print & Ink invites families and friends to decorate their own Fun Fairy Twinkle Lights for bright festival memories. Local artist Phiona Richards invites you to Sunburst Books, a relaxed drop-in workshop where participants decorate small notebooks using neon and metallic designs. Plus, discover a Lantern Installation that has been lovingly co-designed by Phiona and adults with learning disabilities who attend the Creative Support Day Centre. And take a breather while little ones get stuck in at Glow, Sparkle & Shine, a light-inspired creative experience exploring shimmer, reflection, and play with Artsters.

You can also immerse yourself in music, movement, and sensory experiences at this year's Well Creative Festival. Just Karen will fill the streets with Bubble Play and Displays including giant bubbles and inviting playful participation. Step into Tom Dale Company's SURGE in VR and immerse yourself in a futuristic world of movement, sound, and dance. Experience a glowing disco on wheels with Groove and Glow, where you can dance along to timeless hits. A highlight of the festival will be the SPARK! Drummers, who will bring the rhythm of the night with high-impact beats and kaleidoscopic lighting. Follow the bubbles and sounds through the town to discover these artists in unexpected spaces.

Plus, celebrate community with The Shed Of Culture. The Creative Place will install a pop-up arts space co-designed by local young people, inviting everyone to share stories and shape a collective cultural experience. Step inside to explore, create, and connect with your Wellingborough neighbours in an interactive corner of the festival.

Bright Sparks Art (18 years +) Collaging Sessions

The lovely BrightSparks Arts have booked in a run of creative collaging sessions at Kettering Arts Centre.

The Creative Collage Collective is for anyone who enjoys getting creative with magazines, pictures and words while having a really good chuckle with a lovely bunch of people. And the best part, all sessions are absolutely free and you can just turn up on the day.

I have been running art journalling sessions at St Mary's hospital for a few years now, and I still can't quite believe the impact of having some time and space to express some wholesome and simple creativity can have on wellbeing and mental health.

I'm hugely proud to be able to take this to the community and I hope it gives others the chance to shut the world out for an hour or so and explore their creativity. You don't need to be good at art. You don't need any fancy equipment. Just an open mind and a tiny spark of wanting to create something.

We will have a short 1-week break once the Humour Hub finishes and welcome you all back on Tuesday 10th March at 2:15pm. Sessions will run every Tuesday afternoon until the end of April. You'll find us in the Loasby Room at Kettering Arts Centre. All welcome. (It's 18+ due to some of the more grown-up humour that occurs, partly my fault)
